2013 RESERVE MT. VEEDER

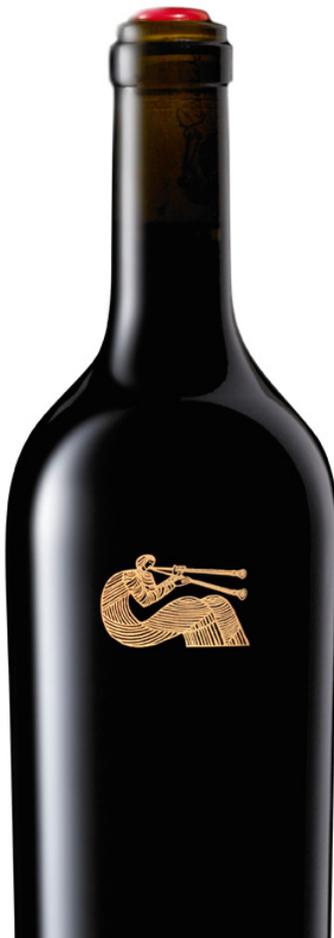

Dear Friends,

There is so much hype in the press and wine world about the singular Napa 2013s, makes you wonder: Is it true? Are the '13 Napa Cabs as impossibly good as they say? Yes! And here's why: Wines from great hillside family estates typically show a lineage of quality that include many spectacular vintages over time.

If a vineyard is tended with disciplined care and abundant love, it will yield great wines year in year out, even in the more challenging years. Consistency is a moving target. We adjust accordingly. Whatever weather nature throws our way, we make the best of it.

And in Napa in 2013, the stars aligned. The steady warm days and cool foggy nights lingered well into October, making for exquisite slow-made ripeness. The best kind.

Famed critic Robert Parker said 2013 Napa wines "may turn out to be the finest vintage.. over the last 37 years. It's a game-changer in terms of the consistency of quality, the depth of quality, and the across-the-board excellence..." We think you will agree.

TASTING NOTES - FROM TIMOTHY MILOS:

"opens with a nose of coffee, gingerbread, cassis and dark cherries, then unfolds with aromas of bay leaf, sweet plum, pomegranate, then cherry, tarragon, rose, iodine, red cassis, cocoa, on top of big, structural but sweet tannins. decant now, better in 2-3, easily 20 years or more of life."

Cheers friends! Peter
